fter much consideration they eded in completing the edal board of seven mems follows: Mrs. Floyd Marant, Pres., Miss Georgia James, Miss Clara Miles, As'st Sec. . Down, Miss Martha Min-Mrs. Eugene Callis and Mr. . F. Marchant. It shall be the duty of this board to take the leadership in promoting the establishment of a county high school at Mathews C. H., also to establish such other schools as it is considered necessary in order to prepare the children of the lower grades to enter the high school at the proper time

Whether this rast shall be ached by private funds, by a union of puplic and private directly interested in the schools funds or by an increase of the Public School Tax remains to be seen after the county authorities have been interviewed; but the educational board has decided vantage to every citizen in the that the solvows in the lower grades must be improved, and we be no difficulty in securing your appeal to the men of Mathews, as a unit, to give us, by your vote and your influence, an increase of the School Tax sufficient to support a nine month's session, and better salaries for better teachers. You will not regret it, for we have decided to put our time and energy on this work and make it succeed, providing we can induce the citizens to give us financial support.

The lack of educational advantagés in good old Mathews has been the means of depriving her of many good citizens and has caused many hundreds of dollars to be sent away for educational purposes, when her sons and daughters should have been educated at home.

Now, in the light of this new century, it is time for the citizens of Mathews to arouse themselves and put a stop to this by taking a old stride forward along the line of progress.

In addition to the executive board, the committee saw fit, after due deliberation, to select a number of the most influencial gentlemen from different sections of the county to compose an advisary board. It shall be the duty of this board to consult with the executive board and help carry on the work planned by them, with the consent and approval of a majority of the advisary board. The gentlemen selected are as follows: Messrs. W. R. Stoakes, J. W. Down, Alex. James, S. E. Richardson, Eugene Callis, G. S. Marchant, Thos. Hudgins (of the Chesapeake School Board), John Hurst, Percival Hicks, Hawkins, J. J. Burke, McDonald, Capt. Travis, Capt. W. B. Nelson, Drs.
